"Our Heavenly Father we approach Thee in the Name of Jesus Christ, precious above every name, to invoke blessings of Almighty God upon the deliberations of this body today.

"We thank Thee, O God, for this honored privilege.

"We thank Thee—dear Lord—for the high privilege of being an humble Minister of the glorious Gospel! We pray, dear Lord, for Thy accompanying blessings to abide upon the servants of State called to this assembly to weigh and plan and enact legislation suited and necessary for the progress of a great State and a needy people! Wilt Thou, O God, be pleased to forgive us of our sins—sins of commission; sins of neglect, sins many! We confess our great need of Thy forgiving mercies for our many transgressions; we thank Thee for blessings to us so poorly deserved but so richly given of Thee. We thank Thee, dear Lord, for life—for health—for the glorious privilege of service in Thy name.

"We are grateful, O God, for the Officers of this House. For the Speaker, for the gracious chaplain, and for our own representatives so gracious and kind to us. May these be found faithful to their every responsibility and the honor our people have trusted to them.

"Bless us, Our dear Lord, in the free pardon of our Sins. Put Thy special blessings—we pray—not alone upon this body weighted with the care of proper legislation but also with care and protection of life itself. May these acquit themselves 'like men' before Thee, O God, this day and every day they are called to duty.

"Give to our chief Executives of State and Nation Thy special providence and strength, O God, in these doubly-testing times. Keep us unto Thyself we ask—in the spirit of old, who prayed—

'God of our Fathers, known of old,
Lord of our Far-Flung battle line;
Beneath Whose awful hand we hold—
Dominion over palm and pine!
Lord, God, of Hosts be with us yet;
Lest we forget, lest we forget!
And this we ask, in Jesus' Name.

Amen."
